

Where to Apply for a Passport in Phoenix, Az.

There are 10 passport offices in the city of Phoenix where citizens of the United States can apply for a new passport. The majority of facilities are located at local post offices. An acceptance agent at these locations will receive your application form and supporting documents, administer an oath and witness the signing of the form. Since most passport offices require an appointment, you should call or schedule an appointment online before visiting.

Estimated processing time is 4 to 6 weeks. Applications can be processed in 2 to 3 weeks if expedited service is requested. There is an additional fee of $60 for this service. Getting a passport faster is only possible at a regional agency.
